

The Ballad of Arngrim's Sons

196

SANDOY.

J.=116

The musical score consists of five staves of music in common time (indicated by '3') and treble clef. The first four staves represent the main melody, while the fifth staff represents the Refrain. The music is divided into two sections by a double bar line. The first section ends with a fermata over the last note of the fourth staff. The second section begins with a new set of lyrics on the fifth staff, which is identified as the Refrain. The lyrics are written below each staff, corresponding to the notes. The music is set against a background of a dotted half note followed by a quarter note, with various dynamics and rests.
